

TEPAP

The Executive Program for Agricultural Producers

Texas Extension Education Foundation
PO Box 946
College Station, TX 77841-0946

NONPROFIT
U.S. POSTAGE
PAID
BRYAN, TX
PERMIT NO. 255

Scan for a link to our website

Lost Pines, Texas
(15 Miles East of Austin)
January 7-13, 2024

TEPAP brings together farmers, ranchers and agribusiness men and women who want to manage their organizations more professionally – from managing opportunities of growth and expansion, to issues of transition and succession planning. Class size is limited to enhance this learning environment that is built on dialogue and discussion, instruction and interaction.

- Family Business Management
- Financial Management
- Strategic Management
- Succession Planning
- Macroeconomics
- Leadership
- Accountability
- Sales
- Negotiation Strategies
- Human relations
- ...and much more

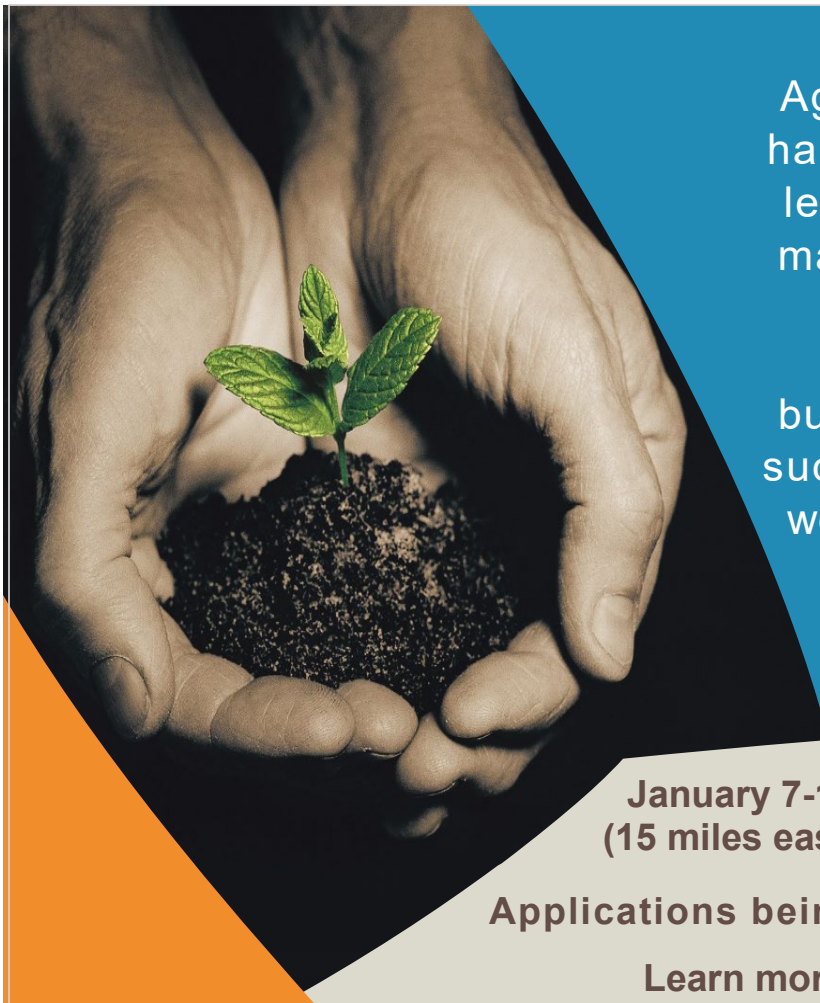

If you have any questions, please contact Emmy Kiphen at:

▶▶▶ 979/847-6143 or
emmykiphen@tamu.edu

TEPAP 2024

<https://tepap.tamu.edu>

The Executive Program for Agricultural Producers (TEPAP) has been equipping agribusiness leaders to develop professional management practices, improve family communication, and provide a path forward for business growth, transition, and succession planning. Join us for a week that will change how you run your business.

January 7-13, 2024 in Lost Pines, Texas
(15 miles east of the Austin, Texas airport)

Applications being accepted starting July 1, 2023

Learn more at: <https://tepap.tamu.edu>

With the generous support of Farm Credit, John Deere, DTN/Progressive Farmer, Pinion, and Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service, TEPAP has taught 2000+ participants advanced agribusiness topics.

The program fee for Unit I, Unit II, and Alumni participants is $7,000.

Unit I and Unit II are both scheduled for January 7-13, 2024. If you need to cancel participation, submit that request in writing prior to December 1, 2023, for a full refund. Cancellations from December 1-31, 2023 are subject to a payment of 50 percent of the program fee. Cancellations after December 31, 2023 are subject to a payment of 75 percent of the program fee. Alternatively, if you cannot attend TEPAP 2024, you may defer your full payment and hold your spot for the program the next year or, subject to approval by the Program Director, send someone else in your place.

TEPAP 2024 is being held at the Hyatt Regency Lost Pines Resort and Spa in Lost Pines, Texas (15 miles east of the Austin, Texas airport). You will be responsible for your own transportation from/to the airport.

How to Enroll

TEPAP is organized into two concurrent, one-week sessions. First time participants will need to enroll in Unit I. Those who have completed Unit I are eligible to enroll in Unit II. If you have completed both Unit I and Unit II, you are invited to enroll in the TEPAP Alumni category. The program fee for Unit I, Unit II, or Alumni is $7,000.

TEPAP 2023 – Unit I

Applications will be accepted starting July 1, 2023, but enrollment is limited! Apply on-line at: <https://tepap.tamu.edu> Qualified applicants will be selected in order of receipt of application and confirmed based on receipt of payment.

TEPAP 2023 – Unit II

To be part of the TEPAP program was one of the great fortunes of my life!

- Ann Jones, Louisiana

Check-in begins at 9:00am Sunday, January 7, and the first session of Unit I, “Financial Concepts Review” begins at 10:00am. The registration fee includes hotel accommodations from Saturday night, January 6 through Friday night, January 12th, and all meals from breakfast Sunday morning January 7, through the Farewell Breakfast on Saturday, January 13.

Unit II officially begins with the Orientation Luncheon at noon on Sunday, January 7. The fee includes hotel accommodations from Saturday night, January 6 through Friday night, January 12, and all meals from Sunday breakfast, January 7, through the Farewell Breakfast on Saturday, January 13. You are invited to attend the “Financial Concepts Review” at 10:00am on Sunday, January 7, if you wish.

TEPAP Alumni may choose to attend the courses they wish, from a refresher of a subject you had in the past, to a new offering we have added since you last attended.

Success requires continuous management improvement at a rate set by the leading edge of your competition and not by your current comfort zone. – Danny Klinefelter, TEPAP Founder